Recent Operations

By Paul Rardin

We've talked about politics in this column for several weeks—so, this week let's talk about something else—Rotarians will be the subject.

The reason for this epistle is because we had a state Rotary convention at Hollywood Beach, the first of the week. Maybe you aren't a Rotarian, but I'll tell you the world that a finer bunch of fellows and gals assembled under one roof. Yes, they had their horseplay—that goes with conventions—but they had their serious moments.

Speakers on the three-day program provided some of the most intelligent presentations of the subjects that I've ever heard.

One speaker in particular I'd like to mention if I could spell his name—a native of Havana. Any name, his address very meaningful and gave those of us who live in Florida something to think about. Off the speaker's rostrum he was a splendid mixer—full of fun—and gave those of us who live in Florida ever seen. I know a lot of folks who could profit by watching such a man in action.

The Pahokee and Belle Glade clubs were well represented at the convention.

It so happens that Belle Glade and Pahokee voted for the same man for district governor of the coming year. De Moton of Lake City will take over the job to be replaced by Fairfax Haskins of Sebring. If the incoming governor does as good a job as the outgoing governor—then our votes were well placed.

Paty Is After Cannon's Scalp

Evading personalities, but heaving solely at the record of the incumbent, B. F. Paty of West Palm Beach, candidate for Congress from the Fourth Congressional District, challenged Rep. Pat Cannon this week to explain his apparent change of attitude on his recorded vote on the retention of the Selective Service Act.

Paty, who voted against retention of the Selective Service Act, which would have disbanded a large part of our army in November, just a month before the Asiatic War broke out, said he had been trained with the arms of those who had been let out, and so on and so forth.

"In a recent explanation," Paty declared from the stump in a number of addresses, "of why he voted against extension of the Selective Service Act, the incumbent stated that with his vote a new army of selectees would have been trained with the arms of those who had been let out, and so on and so forth."

"On Sept. 6, 1941, soon after it was necessary for him to make an explanation in Miami, his home community, of his vote to disband the army in November, just prior to Pearl Harbor in December, the incumbent told the Asiatic War, we don't need a great mass army in this country. Mass armies, with no visible means to fight and no means to control, lead to anarchy and modern warfare, leads to anarchy and revolt—and it can happen here."

The enemy was visible to everyone except our Congressman. Recently, in a further explanation of his vote against retention of the Selective Service Act, the incumbent stated he was not in order that the new selectees could fight with the arms of those who had been let out, and so on and so forth.

But the incumbent was not as much interested in the enemy as he is now, because just a few days prior to Pearl Harbor, he gave his approval to a lucrative, time-consuming scheme. Paty has on numerous occasions challenged the incumbent to meet him in hot debate to explain Cannon's record.

There can be but one answer to this," Paty said in his last speech of the campaign. "The record is indefensible."

Miss Mitchell Named Chairman

At state meeting of the Florida Vocal Association held in Tampa recently, Miss Mitchell was appointed chairman of all "C" Schools in the state. This organization of music teachers has been active for years in high school vocal music, and are responsible for raising the standards of vocal music in the schools greatly in the last ten years.

Every fall a vocal clinic is held in November to "try-out" music suggested for the state festival held each spring. An "All-State" Chorus made up of representatives sent by each school grade sang 20 or 30 numbers under the direction of college vocal directors. Pahokee sent 10 representatives to the clinic in Deland this year. However, the annual festival concert in Tampa this spring, because of the difficulty in transportation, was limited mainly to west coast schools.

Next fall the vocal clinic and all-state chorus will be held in Miami. Noble Can, of Chicago, a director of Special musicals with a reputation, has accepted the Association's invitation to be the guest conductor. Mrs. Lillie B. McKenney, of Palm Beach High School, is president of the Vocal Association.

This forecast and survey of the year's program, based on a tour of Florida which covered 55 of the 65 counties, including hundreds of small towns and communities. The tour included Miami, Jacksonville, Tampa, St. Petersburg, Orlando, Panama City, Tallahassee, Fort Myers, Sarasota, Bradenton and Daytona Beach.

THAT AVERAGE AMERICAN

There is no average American. Hence it is fairly futile to work out a scale of income and outgo for him.

Leon Henderson, price administrator, has figured that the estimated total national income would allow $879 per person. After providing for taxes and normal savings, that person will have $646 which, according to Henderson, still is too much. He will be able to spend only $518 because of shortages. Henderson need not worry about the $128 left over. The so-called average American may wish to take a trip, stage a few parties, stick the cash in his stocking or buy war bonds.—Miami Herald.

NEW YORK CITY FARMERS

Experienced farmers are walking the streets of New York—jobless. Update, spring plowing is handicapped by the loss of farm hands to the armed services, and to better paying war industry jobs. To remedy this situation, the U. S. employment service opened a special office and during the first 10 days of its operation 1,475 unemployed New Yorkers signed up for farm work. Virtually all were men. A drive to enroll women is just starting.

Of these who enrolled more than one-fourth were experienced farmers. Many had had recent experience in farm work.—Exchange.

Hercules, Thomas Mitchell and Abby Roberson. The story is from the R. A. F., and adventures in all the history of those heroic men. It is the tale of an almost shattered romance in the life of a downed pilot and a heroic girl, who dared to put her love above her life. I'll say, it sounds like a show I'll enjoy—I always was a bit romantic.

Tuesday's show, "Valley of the Sun," starring Lucille Ball, James Craig, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Dean Jagger and Tom Tyler, is a high class horse opera, with the injured Western baddies, dance hall gang in fact the works, when it comes to an action pic.

There's the crooked agent, who deals from down under to the poor injun, who rear up on their hind legs and decide to go on the war path, that they may avenge the downright cunningness of the thieving pale faces.

Of course this makes for many thrilling incidents, and there are hilarious situations as well, when the hero of the piece, who is a scout that brings peace to the Indian community only after blood has been shed, finds himself pitted against the assembled tribes, who are determined to have the crooked agent's life. There is a thrilling climax when the warriors, impatient with further delay, attack the community to avenge their wrongs. Please, please say it'll be your cor- puses to a white heat from start to finish.

On the hair raising side, Wednesday and Thursday offers "The Wolf Man," with Claude Rains, Warren William, Ralph Bellamy, Bela Lugosi and Lon Chaney, Jr., who are a fine bunch of BOO men, cut to score the victim and kids, and they'll lift the toupe right off your head.

To get your heart beating back at normal the other pic on the program, "Brooklyn Orchid," is a hoop-de-doo comedy that will have you giggling one moment and rearing with laughter the next. I don't know a thing about the stars, but it is written that this chap William Bendis, who is starred in the opex, is a character comic of no small degree—and Marjorie Woodworth is an eye-ful of temper softness and charm. Offhand I'd say it's worth the gamble of twenty-eight-centavos.

Charlie Chan, who never fails to furnish us with an interesting mystery, will be seen on Friday in "Castle on the Desert," a super dooper murder mystery in a weird castle of death, where Charlie is guest of honor. B39, this one sounds thrilling enough for anyone!

After the shivers have subsided and the goose pimples are no longer in evidence, we can settle back in our seats and give ourselves over to laughter with Frankie Darro, Marcia Mae Jones and Manton Moreland, the little Negro comic, with his big eyes, hysterical voice, in their presentation, "Let's go Collegiate." It's the story of college life, with all its ludicrous situations.

I dove into press books, looked into trade magazines, and read the critics' reviews in out of town papers, in order to give you the low down on the pic situation at the cinema houses for this coming week, and I hope I put you on the right path in deciding which shows you want to see.

First off, this show "Joan of Paris," which is scheduled for a two-day screening at the Prince Theatre, starting Sunday, sounds like a right good show to me.

DEFENSE FIRST!

Make defense against heat and friction your first thought when you buy motor oil. Buy Sinclair Opaline. Opaline contains no "5th Columnist" wax and petroleum jelly—non-lubricating substances that thin out in heat and cut down on oil's lubricating ability. Wax and petroleum jelly are removed from Opaline by an extra refining process. Play safe. Use Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil. It lasts so long it saves you money.

LOOKING To The Future . .

We have made every possible effort to stock those items you will be needing for next year's farm operations. It has taken no little amount of money to carry out this plan. Now, if you'll co-operate with us and take care of those past due accounts, we will be in better shape to secure more of this much needed merchandise.

We believe we have as complete a stock of up-to-the-minute hardware as will be found in Palm Beach county. Come in today and let us figure with you on those things you'll be needing when the new fall farming deal gets underway. It may be easier to make arrangements for these items now—than later.

John T. Pickett

Candidate for County Commissioner
Glades District

Believing that my professional training and knowledge of public affairs qualify me to serve you efficiently as County Commissioner of the Glades District, I respectfully solicit your vote in the Democratic Primary, May 5.

My Qualifications are:
Twenty years experience as a civil engineer in responsible charge of work. A majority of this time has been spent on the construction of roads, streets and other improvements in the Everglades district of Palm Beach county, while serving in the capacity of engineer or as construction superintendent for the state, county and cities.
I am a property owner, married, the father of three children and a veteran of World War I.

IF ELECTED I WILL
At all times co-operate with committees and/or individuals seeking through constructive criticism the betterment of my district and county.
Co-operate with the other commissioners of all worthy causes.
Insist that all county contracts be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder.
Make public all transactions of the board of county commissioners.
Insist that all county affairs within my jurisdiction be conducted with efficiency and economy.

Institute a progressive county road construction program in this district with a view to making access to the state roads as incident not an adventure. In this connection I am of the opinion that the coast has a sufficient number of county roads, to provide for expansion for several years to come—most of which have been constructed within the past few years. I also distinctly believe that through work and cooperation with the people of this district that we can convince the people and commissioners of the other districts of this section's value to the county, state and national government, in its production of foodstuff, and its future value and the absolute necessity of county roads if we are to develop to our fullest proportions in assisting our nation in this critical time. This district has outgrown our present system of county roads and it is vital that every effort be exerted to correct this condition.
At all times to remember our obligations to the unfortunate, the sick and the infirm and provide for their comfort at all times.
Be not unmindful that I am a servant of the people.

Your Vote and Support Will Be Sincerely Appreciated

MAIRE'S PLATFORM

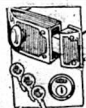

- (1) An all-out, united effort to win the war as soon as possible, using all necessary means, available, without regard to stepping on the toes of those with selfish, personal interests.
- (2) Unalterable opposition to pensions or pay increases for Congressmen or Senators.
- (3) The complete separation of the Legislative, Executive and Judicial branches of the government, as provided by the United States Constitution.
- (4) Unalterable opposition to the delegating and transferring to others of those powers and duties vested in Congress by the United States Constitution, and otherwise by law.
- (5) The limitation of profits in war industries for the duration of the war to a maximum of six per cent of actual investment.
- (6) More migratory farm laborer's facilities as a means of aiding Florida farmers and growers, rather than an expansion of housing facilities, in competition with private ownership, and elimination now and after the war of all Japanese labor, and restriction of ownership in land to American citizens only.
- (7) The lifting of sugar producing restrictions in Florida.
- (8) Pensions and assistance to the dependent aged.
- (9) The securing of war industries and contracts for this congressional district.
- (10) Expansion and improvement of harbors in this Congressional District, and of the Florida Indian Navigation Canal.
- (11) Unalterable opposition to the proposed cross-state canal but for the improvement of present cross-state water facilities.
- (12) Full measure of justice and generosity for all war veterans who have suffered, or will suffer, disability or disease caused or resulting from actual service in time of war.
- (13) Federal beautification and widening of Federal Highways when the war is won and money for same is available.
- (14) An immediate and drastic reduction of governmental expenditures other than for war purposes and defense by abolishing useless commissions and offices, consolidating departments and bureaus, and eliminating extravagance.
- (15) A general return of government to the people, and continued opposition to the trend of bureaucratic rule by the Federal government in matters pertaining solely to state's rights, as well as to the private rights of individuals.

LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORD!!

Why Does Our Congressman Ignore The

Challenge To Explain,

IF HE CAN —

How, since he was elected to Congress on a promise to the old people of this district that he would get old age pensions for them, he approved a lifetime pension for himself, although he failed to redeem that pledge to the old folks?

Why he would have disbanded our army of selectees in November, only a month before Pearl Harbor in December, when everyone in his district must have realized that war was imminent?

Why, when the most momentous question that has ever faced our Congress—a vote on the declaration of war against Germany—our Congressman was recorded as "NOT VOTING"?

If you approve these things, you will have a chance on May 5 to record your approval at the polls. The Constitution provides that our Congressmen be elected every two years. They are our direct representatives in government. That is why they have to give an accounting of their stewardship so often.

If you do NOT approve four Congressman's record—and it is recorded in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD—then elect a man who served 22 months in the army in World War No. 1 and who will give his utmost to support our President and our military leaders in prosecuting this war!

W. A. KEEN

Candidate for Pahokee City Council

I was born and raised in Florida and have lived in Pahokee for more than five years. I own my home here and my store building and other real estate.

Before coming here I have handled many responsible jobs for the country and city where there were large sums of money to be handled and spent by me. You can check my record and see for yourself if I did not handle the work and the spending of the public money not only to an honor to myself but an honor to those who trusted me. You will find that I have been honest, sober and upright in all my business dealings.

You may ask the bank and all the wholesale grocery and meat salesmen how I have handled my business here. They will tell you whether or not I am honest.

I am not running for council for any honor or for what little it pays, but after having a number of years experience handling public business in other places and having my home here and the best interest of Pahokee and the people at heart, if elected I will give my time and use of the best judgment I have for a bigger and better Pahokee.

Your vote and support will be appreciated.

I have no relatives here except my family and will have no special favors, but will work for the interest of all.

Come Out And Vote For
Charles M. Stewart on May 5th.

Charles M. Stewart, of Manatee county, who recently announced his candidacy for state railroad commissioner, in group one, in the forthcoming Democratic primary on May 5, has been visiting in Canal Point this week meeting old friends and campaigning.

Mr. Stewart is a native of Florida, is 53 years old, and is a peace officer of more than 20 years' experience. He resigned his position of county traffic officer of Manatee county to devote his full time toward the race. He is married and has a wife and six children.

During World War No. 1 Mr. Stewart served in the Navy, making 25 trips across the Atlantic, and is a member of the American Legion.

Canal Point supporters of Mr. Stewart, in commenting on his race for the railroad commission, said he was receiving strong support from all sections of the state, and that he had received favorable comment in more than one hundred Florida newspapers and publications on his race for the office.

Upon his departure from Canal Point Mr. Stewart said, "I have thoroughly enjoyed my visit in Canal Point and I certainly appreciate the fine hospitality extended to me while here." Adding, "and I shall be grateful for any and all support given my candiday and if elected I promise an intelligent and economical administration of the affairs of the office."—Paid Pol. Adv.
